

SELECTED WORK FOR BIGSBY GAMES

Kyle Hobson Game Master

Original adventures, player references,
and a world that remembers.

Remote contract roster
Mesa, Arizona · September 2026

Peasants to Kings · Valizar campaign map

A campaign with continuity

I connect character arcs, factions,
and places through a shared body
of lore.

Campaign maps, session recaps,
and faction records give the story
a reference point as it grows.

A one-shot with a clear premise

A corporate fantasy adventure designed for six players and three to four hours.

I prepared characters, handouts, maps, and pacing guidance around that session scope.

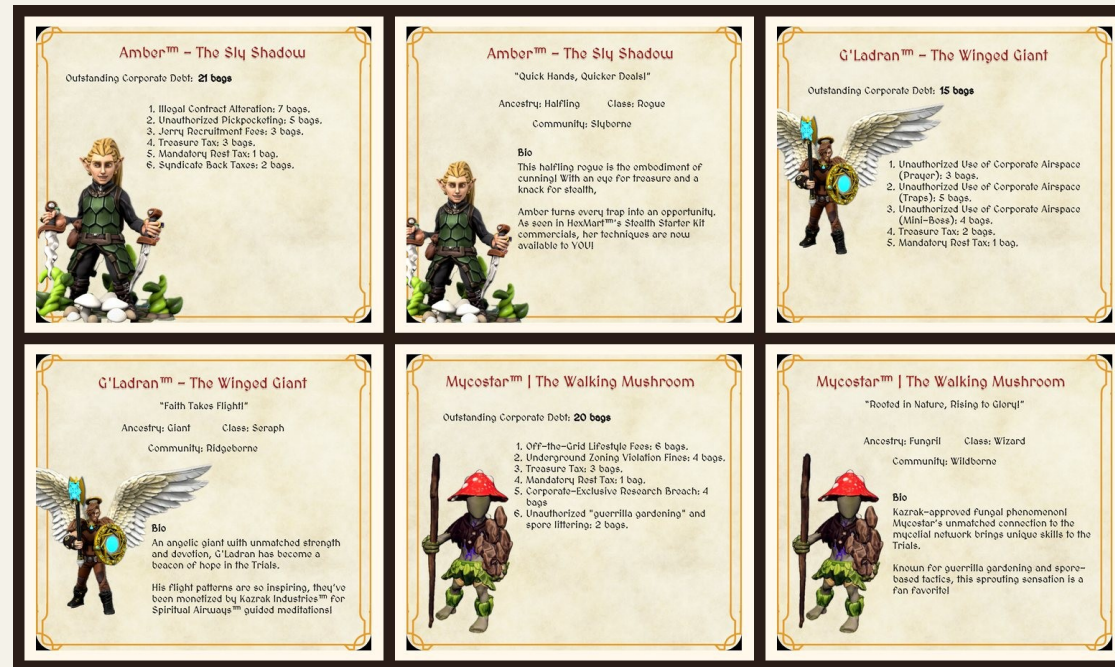

The original physical tower mechanic needs an agreed online adaptation before remote delivery.

Original fictional vendor guide

Give the character a reason to act

Character biographies and fictional debt cards put a personal hook beside the premise.

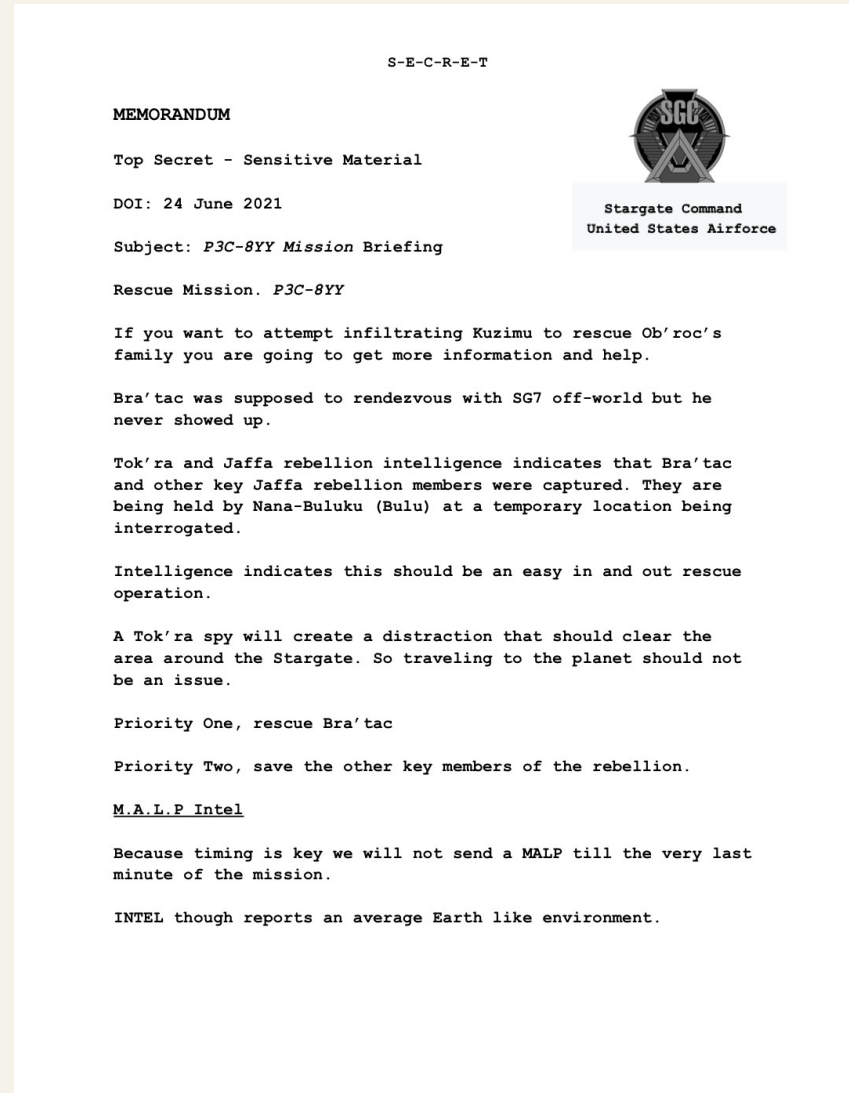

Existing player-facing artifacts · fictional characters and accounts

Put the mission within reach

I organize objectives, character roles, and mission references so players can find their next choice.

Existing fictional mission briefing.
Personal fan-campaign material;
no official franchise affiliation.

A clear start for the online table

Discord • Owlbear Rodeo • Zoom

For a Bigsby session, I would agree on tone and boundaries first, explain the first few choices, and make it easy to pause or ask a rules question.

Proposed session approach;
schedule and preparation scope agreed together.

Facilitation beyond the game
